Exposure Therapy

by Iriascend

Summary

“You’re being corny.”

“You’re being stubborn.”

“Pot, meet kettle. Do I have to remind you how you react to praise?”

Jason stills for a moment. “Is that a challenge?”

“Only if you make it one.”

Notes

I usually write exclusively emotional fluff and then I signed up for a Kinktober gift exchange. This is the result.

Also, I’ve never in my life seen anyone do a lap dance, so. Suspend your disbelief for me a bit.

Big thanks to my lovely betas, clarityhiding and HolodeckPuppies! <3 This would be way messier without you.

Jason shifts, trying to adjust. The seat of the old sofa is worn-out and slightly grimy, and his clothes aren't the most comfortable thing, either. But they fit his cover so he'll have to endure, even if he's not a big fan of button-ups and dress pants. He should be serviced soon enough anyway, get the info he's here for then he can go home and change into something more his style.

The dancer he's paid for walks into his room. She's a gorgeous, petite woman, dressed in a matching set of a shimmering silver mini skirt and crop top. Her black stockings contrast nicely with her pale complexion, making her seem slightly... ethereal. There's even glitter in her hair that glimmers enticingly in the dim light to emphasize the mystical feel, but all Jason can think of is how he has to get his hands on heels like that, because damn.

She freezes after closing the door behind her, and frowns, looking Jason up and down. Jason can't help but raise his eyebrows. Did she see through his disguise? Working girls are clever, sure, but he should be—

Then she crinkles her nose in that specific, cute way he's seen a thousand times and yeah, okay, that checks out.

"Tim," Jason whispers and sighs, exasperated. There goes his chance to discreetly question the club's employees.

He still leans back on the sofa, spreading his legs and laying his arms on the backrest, as if sizing up his girl. So long as they keep the act up, he's comfortable speaking with Tim. There might be a camera in here, but fat chance they also have mics installed.

"Caroline," Tim corrects him, walking over to where Jason's sitting. His makeup is impeccable and the sway of his hips positively hypnotizing; if not for his initial reaction, Jason would probably never have figured out it was him. How he managed to hide his dick so well in a tiny skirt like that remains a mystery. It's magic, maybe. Most definitely close to a miracle.

Tim approaches him slowly, sensually, then leans forward and boops Jason's nose, smiling seductively. He offers him a drink off of the tray he's brought. Jason takes a glass with a nod but sets it aside. Who knows what's in there, even if Tim brought it. He's technically on duty, anyway.

"Why didn't you tell me you were gonna be doing covert work?" Tim asks, fluttering his lashes, which makes Jason blush slightly. Normally, a stripper — even a very pretty one — wouldn't have any influence on him; he's both a professional and a gentleman. But this is no stripper. This is Tim and he knows exactly how to push Jay's buttons.

"Right back at ya, sweet cheeks." He nods at Tim, prompting him to start moving. He's supposed to be a dancer, after all.

Tim rolls his eyes and hips, straightening back up. It's surprising how much taller he seems in those heels, and Jason finds himself having to admit he kind of likes the way Tim's towering over him like that.

He circles the sofa Jason's sitting on a couple of times, letting his skirt barely brush against Jason's skin, dragging a finger over Jason's arms. It makes him look like a predator circling their prey, waiting for the moment to strike.

Just thinking of that comparison makes Jason feel hot.

"I did mention I have a lead on a possible new drug." Tim slowly kneels down in front of the sofa, running his hands along Jason's thighs. It sends sparks of electricity through Jason's every nerve.

"Didn't mention it's on my turf," he retorts. He sticks to short sentences, hoping not to have his breath hitch while he's speaking. It's difficult.

Tim sways to the music, climbing up and over Jason with long, graceful movements. He spends a while caressing Jason's arms and sides. Then, he throws one leg over Jason's hips and makes himself comfortable on Jay's lap by wiggling his ass a bit. Wrapping his arms around his neck, he smiles, eyes half-lidded, and leans in. His skin smells like roses.

"Oh? I thought Red Hood was the boss here, sir?" he whispers into Jason's ear while he rolls his hips back and forth. There's something weirdly enticing about Tim having to still act like he's a stranger. "Or do you wanna cut this charade short and exchange deets at home?"

"Can't really leave now without looking suspicious," Jason admits. As much as he'd like to wrap this up and leave immediately, there's still a part of his brain that's logical and not clouded by the feeling of Tim's thighs rubbing against his own erection. "This cover really comes in handy sometimes, so—"

Tim smirks like he's figured him all out.

"You just really dig the heels, don't you."

Jason laughs. "It's the stockings that do it for me, honestly. Think you can keep those?"

Tim rolls his hips again, a little bit harder. "I'll see what I can do."

Jason whines, then reaches out to feel the fabric of said stockings. They're probably silk, thin and cool to the touch, and he can almost imagine how natural the transition between them and Tim's soft skin is—

Tim slides off his lap, dodging out of the way of Jason's hand and wags his finger at him. "We have a no touching policy, sir," he chastises playfully. As an answer, Jason sighs, then slides his hands under himself. Just in case he forgets again, because heaven knows Tim pretending — even if only for a moment at a time, even if only partially — not to know him, to be just a dancer... it's doing things to him.

Tim smiles and resumes his routine. He runs his hands up and down his sides, across his exposed belly, over his smooth arms and long neck. He is so in sync with the music that it feels like it's been made just for him. Every quirk of the hip is on the beat, every motion in tandem with the melody, fluid and graceful. Jason follows his movements closely with his gaze, hungry and yearning.

“So, why is there word of dangerous drugs in RH’s club, hm?”

It takes Jay a moment to respond, but he does eventually find his words. “Exactly what I’m trying to figure out. Someone’s real stupid out there.”

“Can’t the big guy just ask his people himself?”

“You think they’d fess up to their boss? Timmy—”

“—Caroline, please. Besides, is that jealousy I hear?”

“None that matter, pretty bird.”

That’s apparently a good response because Tim hovers his face really, really close to Jason’s and he thinks he’s about to kiss him (and blow both of their covers, but that’s a mere afterthought). Instead, Tim returns to Jason’s lap, with his back to him this time. He rests his backside against Jason’s straining jeans and starts rolling his hips again. His spine is arched, head thrown back; sometimes he sneaks a peek at Jason over his shoulder, and sends him one of his seductive gazes. He’s merciless.

It takes Jason a moment to realise that unlike every professional dancer he’s ever met, who would bless him with only the passing touch of maybe their thigh, Tim is full-on grinding his ass against him.

“Do you do this every time you’re undercover as a dancer?” Jason asks, trying to sound witty, but it comes out more like a whimper.

Tim’s voice is amused when he responds. “Is that jealousy I hear?”

“Just wondering how I hadn’t heard of a dancer like you before.”

“You’re getting special treatment.” And with that, he returns to torturing Jason.

By the end of it, Jason’s fully hard and finds it very difficult to keep his head in the game. When Tim backs away, droplets of sweat glistening on his skin, Jason nearly whines at the loss of touch.

Tim winks and blows him a kiss, then walks away, hips swinging side to side like he hadn’t just undone Jason.

“Meet you in an hour at the Nest?” he asks over his shoulder, smirking, right before leaving the room. All Jason can reply with is a muffled, affirmative groan.

Tim welcomes him in loungewear, messy and comfortable, but far from unkempt. Though there's still some glitter in Tim's hair, the ethereal glow he had in the club is all but gone. He's wearing loose sweats and one of the t-shirts he's stolen from Jason. It's way too big on him, hanging off of one shoulder and, as always, it makes Jason feel weirdly possessive about him. The thought of Tim wearing his smell on him is very alluring.

The more interesting thing about his outfit, though, is what covers his feet.

"Are those...?" Jason points downwards, his cheeks already heating up.

His boyfriend grins, delighted that his tease is successful, then pulls up one pant leg to confirm Jason's suspicions. The very same black stockings he had on before.

Jason starts to hastily take off his shoes. Tim laughs and drags him towards the bedroom by his tie.

The lights are already dimmed, just like Tim likes, and the room smells vaguely of flowers. Laundry detergent, Jason's mind supplies helpfully, which means the sheets are fresh. It seems like a futile endeavour, to change them right before they make them filthy, but there's a special kind of coziness coming from having sex on soft, clean linen.

Tim leads Jason up to the bed and pushes him flat onto the mattress. He doesn't have to use any force; the slightest hint of his intention is enough for Jason to lay down, pliant to his lover's wants. In one swift move, Tim is on him — sitting in his lap once again this evening — and starts kissing him senseless.

They begin at the lips, as they always do, and slowly head towards other, more exciting territories. Jaw, neck, ears, collarbones... anything that's within reach.

Tim leisurely undresses Jason along the way, liberating him from the limits of his tie, belt, dress shirt... In return, Jason slips one of his hands underneath Tim's t-shirt, desperate to touch bare skin, but to his surprise finds a different fabric still separating them. He frowns, thrown off a bit. Tim pulls away and grins again, then takes the shirt off, revealing a beautiful piece of lingerie hugging his ribcage. Not just any lingerie, but the most elaborate French lace bustier — in brilliant red, no less — that he has ever seen. It frames Tim's body perfectly, putting all those sweet, sweet muscles on display and making Jason's mouth water.

"I hope you're aware I'm going to ruin that thing," he says, running his fingers over the frills and ribbons decorating the bustier.

"Oh, I'm counting on that."

"You look incredible."

Tim blushes but doesn't miss a beat. "I know."

"No, I mean— I know I'm head over heels for you and you probably don't think much of what I'm saying because I'm biased, but you've really outdone yourself with this one. You look—just... Let me kiss you.”

Tim laughs and dives back in, eager to fulfil the request, but Jason intercepts him and rolls them over instead.

“My turn,” he announces, pinning Tim down beneath him, holding him in place with his thick thighs. He trails kisses down Tim's chest, slow and passionate. The skin under the lace flushes with excitement, blurring the line between fabric and flesh. He spends a good while caressing Tim, kissing and licking his way around and over the bustier. Each peck is a reverent, silent proof of his admiration for every inch of Tim's body that he's allowed to touch. He writes poetry with his tongue, embedding verses upon verses of devotion into the lace with the wetness of his saliva.

Tim squirms under him, still unaccustomed to the feeling of being wanted, of being appreciated, of being loved. He tries to escape, desperately — to flip them back over, where he's the one in control, where he's the worshipper, not the worshipped. Jason keeps him down, still and steady.

Exposure therapy, he calls it. He's told Tim he loves him many a time, but it never quite feels like Tim really believes him. But this? This he can't deny. Worst-case scenario, it's at least a fun, relaxing way to pass the time. None of Jason's previous partners ever complained about his skills, after all.

He slowly makes his way farther down, over Tim's soft belly. Nuzzles his cheek against it, finding comfort in the way it shrinks and expands in the rhythm of Tim's breathing. It's fast and shallow, pants and gasps being the most Tim can achieve under the barrage of affection. The sounds he makes are like honey to Jason's ears (and like an aphrodisiac to his cock, but he ignores that for now).

Finally, after what must feel like ages for Tim, the trail of kisses reaches the top of his sweats.

“Does it have a matching bottom?” Jason asks, slightly breathless, motioning up at the lace bustier with his chin. It gives Tim a moment of reprieve, a chance to catch his own breath. He uses it to be snarky again, though the delivery falls a tad flat with how flushed he is.

“It's either that, or I'm not wearing underwear. What do you think?”

“Whichever it is now, it's going to be the latter soon, ” Jason responds, nosing at the waistband. Tim raises his hips in a wordless approval and allows him to pull the pants off his hips. It reveals matching lace panties underneath and, more importantly for Jason, the black stockings in all of their glory, hooked up to a dainty-looking garter belt.

Jason snaps one of the belt's straps playfully, enjoying the delightful yelp that escapes Tim's mouth and the pink mark it leaves on his perfect skin.

“You owe me for that,” Tim grumbles, looking down with a frown that manages to be too cute to really convey displeasure.

“And I intend to deliver, sweetie.” Jason grins, then dives in, continuing his trail of kisses. To Tim’s disappointment, he skips the groin entirely, going straight for the inner thighs. His disappointment is brief though, replaced with another wave of pleasure and moans as Jason sucks a hickey onto the sensitive skin right above the stockings.

Just as Jason imagined, it’s hard to tell by touch where skin ends and the fabric begins, with how both are so soft and smooth. If not for the radiating warmth of Tim’s body and the gentle chill of the silk (and the striking contrast of Tim’s pale skin against the black, almost shimmering weave) to discern them by, he’d be none the wiser.

It makes no difference, still. Jason kisses and licks all the way to Tim’s ankles and feet, enjoying every inch. Sweet nothings spill from his lips as he makes his way down, praises mixed with declarations of lust.

“I love seeing how excited you get from just me kissing you,” he whispers after a while, placing a passing butterfly kiss on the panties. They were nice and snug around Tim’s hips once, but are now struggling to contain the erection underneath.

“You’re the one obsessing over stockings, Jay,” Tim retorts immediately, smirking. He reaches up with his foot and runs a toe over Jason’s equally straining bulge, hidden under the now-debauched dress pants. It sends a shiver down Jason’s spine, which only causes Tim’s smirk to turn more devilish. “Are we going to get to the main event anytime soon?”

“Impatient, aren’t you?”

“A little worried that the silk’s getting more action than I am.” There’s more sarcasm to it than actual doubt, but it still doesn’t sit right with Jason.

“Oh, babe.” He crawls back up and leans in to kiss Tim on the lips. “Clothes don’t make a man. You know I’d eat you up regardless of what you wore.”

Tim quirks an eyebrow. “You seem more eager to eat from a lace-and-silk plate.”

“I enjoy my food well-seasoned and served pretty like a luxurious meal, what can I say.”

Tim snorts at that. “I’m more of a microwave dinner—” he begins, but the sentence is interrupted by the squeal he makes when Jason literally bites his shoulder.

“How dare you insult my boyfriend?” he asks, frowning, though it doesn’t look very menacing from his position between Tim’s legs.

“Jason, come on, I was just jo—” Tim tries again, but is silenced by another corrective nibble.

Tim sighs and shrugs. “If you want to believe that, sure.”

Jason frowns once more and stands up, then all but yanks Tim off the bed and into a bridal-style carry. He looks around, pausing to give himself a moment. Once a plan fully formulates in his mind, he walks over to the bedside table.

“Grab the lube and the condoms for me, hon’,” he says, gesturing downwards, still keeping Tim tight in his grasp.

“You’re going to try to fuck my self-esteem issues out of me?”

“If I have to.”

Tim grins and eagerly fishes out the needed items out of the top drawer. Jason makes his way out of the bedroom, towards the living room. Tim quirks an eyebrow and smirks, probably amused by Jason’s choice of the place to fuck him silly. There are better spots than the plush sofa in the middle of the room, after all. When Jason sits them down, straight across a giant wall mirror, the amusement quickly fades from Tim’s face, replaced with thinly-veiled discomfort. Even being held close to Jason, his back flush against the warm, naked skin of Jay’s chest, doesn’t seem to ease it.

Jason figured that would be the reaction. It’s not that Tim dislikes the mirror, no. It has its place and purpose, one that it fulfils well. In an otherwise mostly-artificially-illuminated apartment, the mirror intensifies the natural light from an adjacent window to improve Tim’s indoor photos enough that even Jason can tell the difference.

But looking at oneself in it isn’t its purpose. Not for Tim, at least. Even now, he makes eye contact with his reflection only for a brief moment, then quickly looks away. That... inability to face himself is something that doesn’t sit right with Jason, and so they’re here. He hopes he can condition Tim into enjoying the view at least a bit as much as Jason does.

Tim groans and squirms in Jason’s embrace, clearly trying to turn his back to the mirror.

“You okay?” Jason whispers, now unsure if he’s maybe gone a tad too far out of Tim’s comfort zone. He rests his chin on Tim’s shoulder, hugging him closely like a safety blanket, just in case.

“I’m— yeah, just... do we have to? Here?”

He tries to catch Tim’s gaze in the mirror, but he’s avoiding it at all costs. Jason frowns, gently grabs his jaw and turns his head around, forcing him to look Jason in the eye. “Are you okay?” he asks again with slightly more pressure in his tone.

Tim hesitates for a moment, then melts under the gaze. “Y-yeah. Yeah, I’m okay.”

“Then we have to,” he replies with a smirk, kissing along Tim’s exposed neck. Tim gasps and he fully relaxes into the touch. The act seems to slowly wash away the tension he’s holding, so Jason reaches down towards the panties and gently palms the erection underneath. Tim spreads his legs as if on instinct, giving Jason more working space.

Jason gradually works his way into the underwear and starts lazily rubbing Tim off. After a while, he reaches further down. He’s fully intending to spend a long time prepping him, leisurely stretching him open, so he’s more than a little surprised to find Tim’s hole already relaxed and welcoming, his finger slipping in with ease.

Jason looks at Tim in the mirror with a slightly stunned expression.

“You think I needed a whole hour just to take my makeup off and change clothes?” he asks, unrepentant.

“Naughty,” Jason comments. “Let’s not keep you waiting any longer then, shall we?”

Tim fishes a condom out of the package he’s still clutching, opening it and handing it over to Jason with a grin. “Now you’re speaking my language.”

Jason indeed makes quick work of the remaining preparations. Once he’s sheathed and properly lubed up, he doesn’t even bother with having Tim take off the panties — just drags them to the side, aligns himself and pulls Tim deeper into his lap, pushing inside him.

The first motion is slow and gentle, dragging a low, long sigh of pleasure out of Tim. It settles and grounds them both, and Jason can’t help but smile. He nibbles on Tim’s neck and earlobe, forcing another quiet moan out.

“God, you feel amazing,” Tim whispers, his head lolling back to rest on Jason’s shoulder.

Jason nudges Tim’s cheek. “Open your eyes.”

He opens just one of them and peeks at Jay. “Can’t you just fuck me?”

“I’m a romantic.”

“What’s so romantic about having me look at myself in the mirror?”

“I’m hoping you’ll see what I see.”

“And what is that?”

Jason guides Tim’s face to look straight ahead, into the mirror, with one hand. “A strong—”

“You have a weird definition of ‘strong’.”

“Most people would say cute or pretty, really.”

“That’s the same thing.”

“That’s another goddamn synonym.”

“–competent–”

“Now you’re just doing it on purpose. Come up with something original.”

“–absolutely amazing man. The best person I’ve ever had the pleasure of knowing.”

“You’re being corny.”

“You’re being stubborn.”

“Pot, meet kettle. Do I have to remind you how you react to praise?”

Jason stills for a moment. “Is that a challenge?”

“Only if you make it one.”

He considers his options for a moment. Then he kisses Tim’s cheek. “Your eyes are pretty, you know that?”

“You’re going to regret this.”

“I’m balls deep into my beloved boyfriend, being dared to sing his praises. There’s nothing you can do that would make me regret this.”

To highlight that attitude, Jason wraps his arms around Tim, snuggling him close, then starts thrusting into him, slowly and carefully. It makes them both sigh quietly in joined pleasure.

Jason finds the sight of his cock going in and out of Tim frankly mesmerising. It intensifies every sensation, and so he hopes it’s just as satisfactory for Tim.

“I can say that your hair looks great.” Tim’s voice is a little shaky in a way that can only mean wavering resolve, and Jason notices with glee that Tim does sneak a glance at the reflection, too.

He smirks, feeling a bit victorious already. Still, his tone is level, unbothered by Tim’s attempt at upholding the competition. “Mm. So does yours.”

Tim doesn’t give up; instead, he doubles down on his approach. “The white streak? Fabulous.” Jason just chuckles, licking along the line of Tim’s jaw.

“Have I ever mentioned that your voice turns me on? Do continue,” he mumbles, then busies himself with sucking a hickey onto Tim’s neck. It sends a shiver through Tim’s body and elicits a loud moan out of his mouth. It feels like he’s about to give in–

“Your fiend,” Jason chuckles. “Do you surrender yet?”

“Never. I–” Tim replies, but Jason interrupts him with a slightly harder thrust. Tim looks at him through the reflection, indignant. “I love that you’re...” he pauses for a moment, looking for the right word, "...big."

Jason snorts. "Oh, so you finally admit to being a size queen?" Tim puffs his cheeks in annoyance.

"I meant you're built like a fucking tank."

Jason raises his eyebrows and stills for a moment. "There are easier ways to call me fat."

"No! I like that you're bulky and soft. It's... comforting." He pauses for a moment, then quietly adds: "Makes me feel safe."

There's a brief silence as Jason takes in the... vulnerability that Tim just admitted. Once it hits, he pulls Tim even closer, his caresses intensifying. He kisses Tim's temple, and neck, and hair, and kisses away the ensuing embarrassed blush off of Tim's cheeks.

To hide his own sudden shyness, Tim continues talking. "And it actually makes you stronger! Wish I could put on a few pounds, too. I'm all skinny and—"

"If you're going to complain about being built like a Greek god, I swear—"

Tim snorts. "Greek god. Yeah, right. I'm too short for—"

"You ain't short, you're bite-sized!" To illustrate his point, he nibbles on Tim's shoulder, drawing another moan out of him. "'Sides, you can bench-press your own body weight. That's amazing. I can't do that."

"You are terrible at bed talk, you know that?"

Jason smirks and picks up where he left off, continuing to thrust into Tim. "Would you rather I praised how tight you are?" he asks. He once again directs Tim's face back towards the mirror, so he has no choice but to look at himself being gently bounced on Jason's cock. It's a stark contrast to Tim's own, which is still painfully bound in the lace confines of the panties.

"Only if you want me to—" Tim interrupts himself with a gasp "—tell you how full I feel with you inside." He pauses to apparently catch his breath, though it doesn't seem to help much. Sweat starts pearling on his forehead. "You're stretching me so good."

"That's—" Jason grunts with effort. "That's unfair. Your— your moans are too hot. Every time you make a noise, it goes straight to my cock."

"Good." Tim bites his lip and starts teasing his own nipples through the lace on his chest, making eye contact with Jason in the mirror. Jason pulls him closer, flush against his own chest, smiling. Tim can probably feel his frantic heartbeat and the heat he radiates, clear signs of how much he's enjoying this, because he continues his ribbing. "I want you to fuck me so hard I won't be able to walk tomorrow."

Jason picks up the pace, his hands sliding down to hold Tim by the hips, stabilizing him. "Like this?"

“Like this. You’re doing great.” Tim cups Jason’s face with one hand and continues whispering in a low, sensual tone. “You’re nailing it. It feels so good. How can you be so perfect? You feel amazing inside me.” His words are dotted with little gasps and moans as Jason keeps thrusting into him.

“It’s ’cause you’re irresistible. Fucking you is the best feeling ever. With you— for you, I can do anything.”

“I want you to come for me.”

“Keep at it and I will. You almost made me come back at the club by just dancing.”

“But you didn’t, just like I told you to. You’re such a good boy.” Jason’s breath hitches and a whine escapes his throat at that.

“You’re such a little brat,” he whispers, but it lacks the bite to be a real witty response. It’s not like he doesn’t enjoy the praise, after all. Tim just smirks and starts moving his ass in wide, sensuous circles, matching Jason’s pace.

“I want you to fill me up,” he says. “Can you do that for me?”

Jason lets go of one of Tim’s hips, his hand finding its way to Tim’s neglected cock. He fishes it out of the panties, carefully wraps his fingers around it, and starts slowly moving his hand up and down. “Only if you give me another one of your pretty little moans, darling.”

And Tim does. Not one, but a whole serenade of delightful sounds, of sobs and pleas for more, seemingly entirely caught up in the sensation. With nowhere to go, completely enveloped by Jason’s embrace, it’s all he can do.

“You have— no idea what you’re doing to me right now,” he manages to stammer out as he digs his fingers into the thick thighs under him like they are his salvation. “Keep— keep being good for me.”

“You’re mine,” Jason responds, nuzzling Tim’s temple. “All mine. Look at you, taking it perfectly. Your ass is made for me. Would you be good and finish for me, babe?”

With a few more strokes, Tim can’t refuse the request. He cries out — screams, nearly — as his body arches and he spills all over Jason’s hand. The ensuing rush makes him reach back to tilt Jason’s face and start kissing him, hungry and greedy and passionate.

It doesn’t take long for Jay’s legs to start trembling in pleasure, too. After a couple of last, deep thrusts he finishes with a loud groan. He doesn’t let go of Tim even after the tension leaves him, though; he keeps him close, wrapped in his arms.

“One day I’m going to win and make you finish first, I swear,” Tim grumbles, closing his eyes again and relaxing into Jason’s arms.

“You still did a great job! Almost succeeded. You’re getting closer to it every time. I’m so proud of you.” Jason’s tone is amused, but there’s enough seductive roughness in it to make it sound like he’s still trying to rile Tim up with praises.

Tim opens one eye to look at Jason with a playful frown. “Menace. You’re an absolute menace.”

Jason laughs. “Your me—” he starts, but Tim shuts him up with a kiss.
